What's new for SharePoint Lists?

As an evolution of SharePoint lists everything brought by the new Microsoft Lists is being reflected in SharePoint Online, and there are a handful of new features that will make your life so much easier. Read more

Microsoft Office 365 is becoming the core of many businesses - and hackers have noticed

As the use of Microsoft's Office 365 grows – encompassing services including Exchange, Teams, SharePoint, OneDrive and more –the sheer amount of data stored in the cloud is proving to be a tempting target for some of the most sophisticated hacking operations in the world. Read more

THE ONGOING BATTLE WITH CONTENT SPRAWL

Content sprawl is an inevitable byproduct of collaboration. No matter how well you prepare, automate, and control a collaboration environment, you will experience some degree of content sprawl.
